

This handwriting practice sheet features a background illustration on the left side, divided into three horizontal bands: a blue sky with a grey bird flying, a green grassy field with a grey mouse, and a brown dirt path with a tan snake. The right side of the sheet is a writing area with four horizontal lines: a top blue line, a middle green line, a baseline brown line, and a bottom red line. The word 'émo' is written in a dotted font across these lines. The letter 'é' is positioned between the green and brown lines, with a counter-clockwise arrow indicating the writing direction. The letter 'm' is between the green and brown lines, with arrows showing a downward stroke followed by an upward one. The letter 'o' is between the green and brown lines, with arrows showing a downward stroke followed by a counter-clockwise curve. To the left of the word is a large, solid black outline of the letter 'L', with a pencil icon at the top and small circles at the corners, indicating its position on the lines.

This is a blank handwriting practice sheet with the same background illustration as the first sheet on the left side, showing a bird in the sky, a mouse in the grass, and a snake on the dirt path. The right side of the sheet is a writing area with four horizontal lines: a top blue line, a middle green line, a baseline brown line, and a bottom red line. The area is otherwise empty, intended for independent practice.

This handwriting practice sheet features a four-band background: blue at the top, green in the middle, brown below that, and red at the bottom. On the left side, there is a vertical illustration divided into four sections: a bird in the blue band, a mouse in the green band, and a snake in the brown band. The right side of the sheet contains a large dotted uppercase letter 'E' with numbered arrows indicating the stroke order: 1 for the vertical line, 2 for the top horizontal line, and 3 for the bottom horizontal line. Below the 'E' is a dotted word 'mimo' with numbered arrows showing the stroke order for each letter: 'm' (1), 'i' (1), 'm' (1), and 'o' (1).

This is a blank handwriting practice sheet with the same four-band background (blue, green, brown, red) and vertical illustration (bird, mouse, snake) as the top sheet. The right side of the sheet is empty, providing space for practicing handwriting.

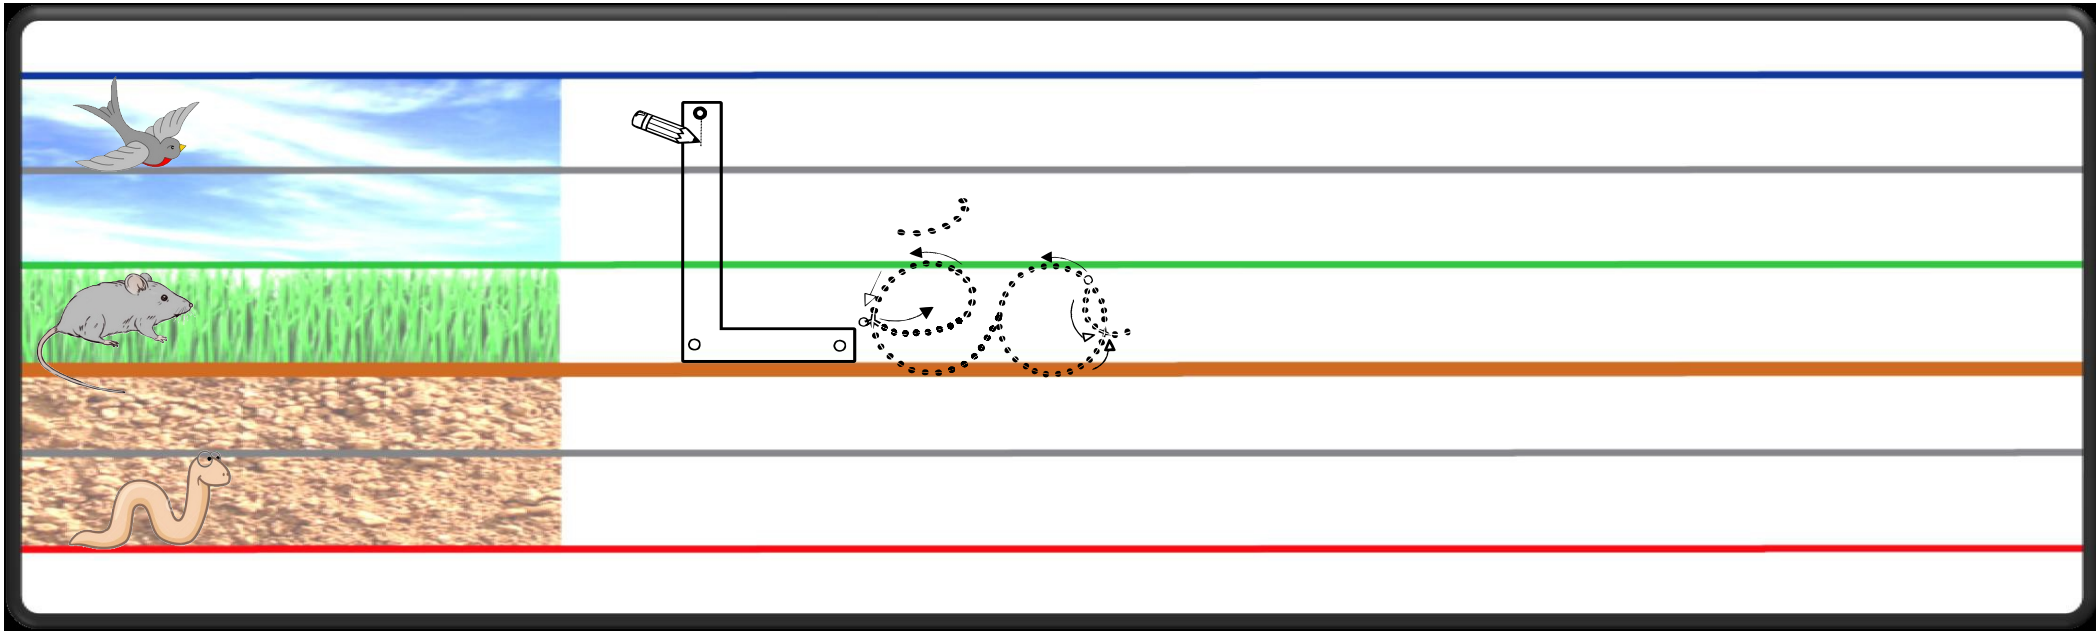

A handwriting practice sheet for the word "Normal". The sheet is divided into four horizontal bands: blue (top), green (middle), brown (bottom), and red (bottom-most). On the left side, there are three illustrations: a bird flying in the blue band, a mouse in the green band, and a snake in the brown band. The word "Normal" is written across the bands. The letter 'N' is solid black and spans from the blue to the brown band. The letters 'o', 'r', 'm', 'a', 'l' are dotted and span from the green to the brown band. Arrows and numbers indicate the stroke order for each letter: 'N' (1: vertical down, 2: diagonal down-right), 'o' (1: counter-clockwise circle), 'r' (1: vertical down, 2: curved up), 'm' (1: vertical down, 2: hump up, 3: hump down), 'a' (1: counter-clockwise circle, 2: vertical down), and 'l' (1: vertical down, 2: counter-clockwise circle).

A blank handwriting practice sheet with the same four horizontal bands (blue, green, brown, red) and illustrations (bird, mouse, snake) as the first sheet. The word "Normal" is not present, leaving the space for practice.

This handwriting practice sheet features a landscape illustration on the left side, divided into three horizontal bands: a blue sky with a bird, a green grassy field with a mouse, and a brown ground with a snake. To the right of the illustration is a large outline of the letter 'j' with a pencil icon at its top. Further right is a dotted tracing guide for the letter 'j', showing the stroke order with arrows and small circles. The entire sheet is framed by a black border and contains several horizontal lines: a blue top line, a grey middle line, a green line, a brown line, and a red bottom line.

This is a blank handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'j'. It features the same landscape illustration on the left side as the first sheet, with a bird in the sky, a mouse in the grass, and a snake on the ground. The right side of the sheet is blank, intended for independent practice. The sheet is framed by a black border and contains the same set of horizontal lines: blue, grey, green, brown, and red.

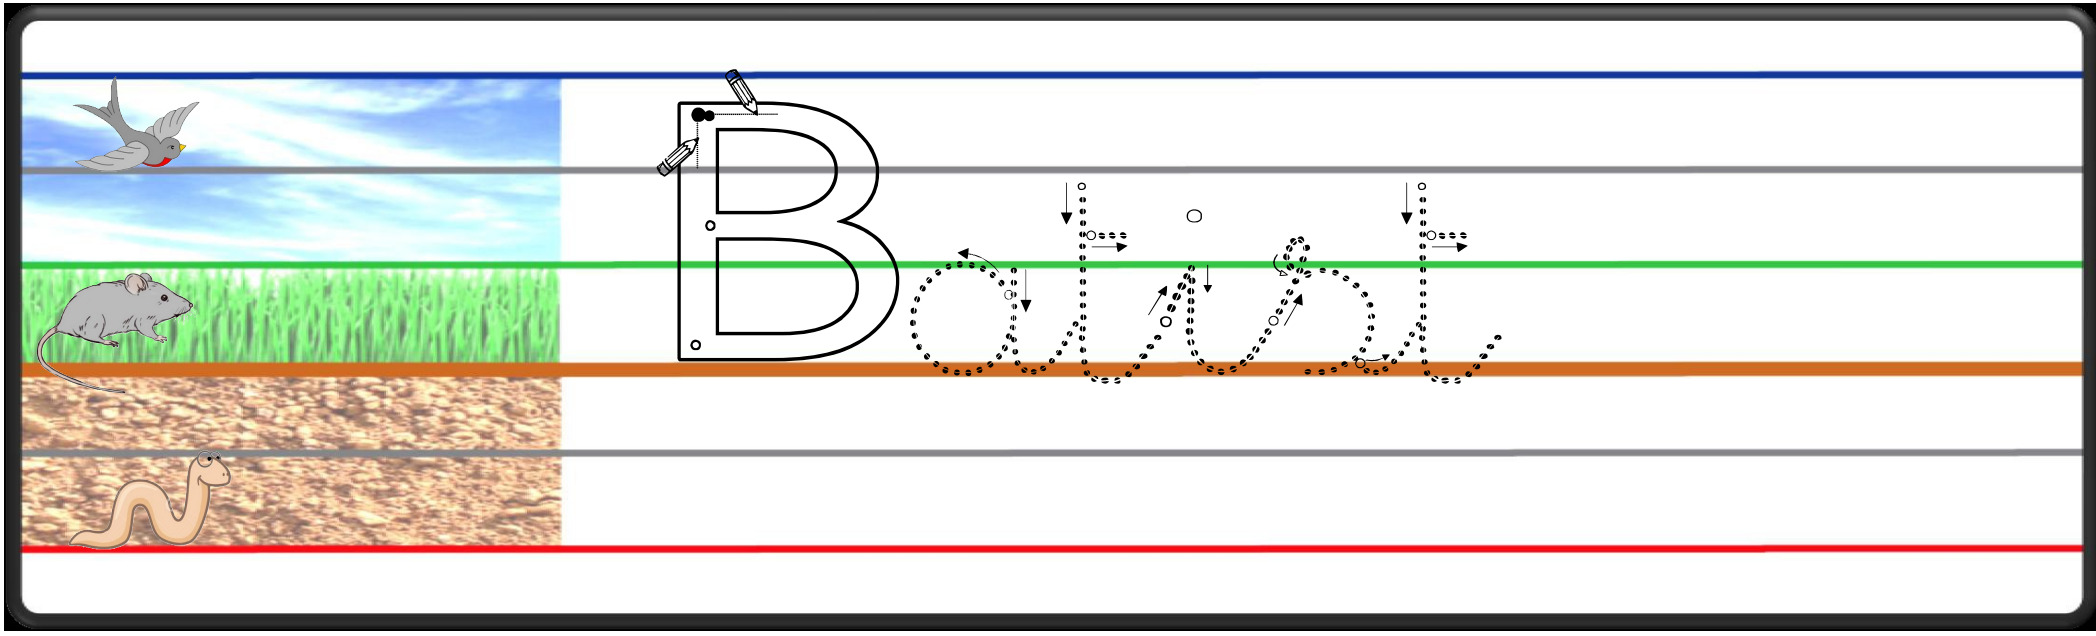

This handwriting practice sheet features a background illustration on the left side, divided into three horizontal bands: a blue sky with a bird, a green field with a mouse, and brown ground with a snake. The right side of the sheet is a writing area with four horizontal lines: a top blue line, a middle green line, a baseline brown line, and a bottom red line. The word 'anima' is written in a dotted font across these lines. A pencil icon is positioned at the start of the word. Arrows and small circles indicate the stroke order and direction for each letter: 'a' (top curve, bottom curve, vertical stem), 'n' (vertical stem, top curve, bottom curve), 'i' (vertical stem, dot), 'm' (vertical stem, first hump, second hump), and 'a' (top curve, bottom curve, vertical stem).

This row features the same background illustration on the left side as the top row, showing a bird in the sky, a mouse in a field, and a snake in the soil. The right side of the row is a blank handwriting practice area with four horizontal lines (blue, grey, green, red) for tracing or independent writing.

Handwriting practice row 1. The background is divided into four horizontal bands: blue sky with a bird, green grass with a mouse, brown soil with a snake, and a white bottom band. The row contains a large outline of the letter 'B' with a pencil icon at its top, followed by the words 'Biscuits' in a dotted font for tracing. Arrows and small circles indicate the stroke order for each letter.

Handwriting practice row 2. The background is identical to row 1, with the same four horizontal bands and illustrations. This row is currently blank, providing space for independent handwriting practice.

This handwriting practice sheet features a four-line grid with a blue top line, a green middle line, a brown baseline, and a red bottom line. On the left side, there are three illustrations: a bird flying in the sky, a mouse in a grassy field, and a snake on the ground. The main content includes a large outline of the letter 'm' with two pencils at its top corners, and a series of dotted 'm's for tracing. Each dotted 'm' has small arrows and numbers indicating the stroke order: 1 for the vertical line down, 2 for the first hump, and 3 for the second hump. The first 'm' is positioned between the green and brown lines, while the others are between the brown and red lines.

This is a blank handwriting practice sheet, identical in layout to the one above. It features a four-line grid (blue, green, brown, red) and illustrations of a bird, a mouse, and a snake on the left side. The central area is empty, intended for independent practice of writing the letter 'm'.

This handwriting practice sheet features a four-color background: blue sky, green grass, brown earth, and red ground. On the left, there are illustrations of a bird, a mouse, and a snake. The central part shows a large uppercase letter 'M' with arrows indicating the stroke order: a vertical line down on the left, a vertical line down on the right, and two diagonal lines connecting the top to the center. To the right of the 'M' is a dotted lowercase letter 'm' with arrows and numbers (1, 2, 3) indicating the stroke order: a vertical line down, followed by two humps, and a final vertical line down.

This is a blank handwriting practice sheet with the same four-color background (blue, green, brown, red) and animal illustrations (bird, mouse, snake) as the first sheet. It is designed for independent practice of the letter 'm'.

This is a blank handwriting practice sheet with the same four-line grid and vertical background illustration as the first sheet. The word "souris" is not present, leaving the lines empty for practice.
